KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Kate Brady, PhD, ABD
Human Services Research Institute

Dr. Brady is the Co-Director of the Grassroots Project and brings nearly 20 years of experience in disability policy and advocacy. She specializes in Home- and Community-Based Services (HCBS), Medicaid, and advancing rights and inclusion for people with disabilities. Dr. Brady has held leadership roles at the Georgia Council on Disability and the National Organization on Disability, and is passionate about connecting communities and strengthening supports that help people thrive.

Brian Aberly, PHD
University of Minnesota Institute On Community Integration

Dr. Aberly is Senior Research Associate at the Institute on Community Integration and an adjunct faculty member at the University of Minnesota. He has led projects enhancing educational outcomes, social inclusion, and self-determination for children, youth, and adults with disabilities at the local, national, and international levels, with work spanning the U.S., India, and Costa Rica. This work includes the development of culturally responsive education programs that teach youth and young adults with IDD and their support teams skills in supported decision-making.
